

Video Posting Terms and Conditions

Thank you for agreeing to let us publish your amazing video on our website, speakbravely.com. Please read and sign the following terms and conditions. If you have questions or concerns, please contact us at shawni@ speakbravely.com.

Terms and Conditions:

- 1) In submitting your video, you agree to let us publish your video on our YouTube channel, which we will then publish on our website, speakbravely.com.
- 2) You affirm that the content of your video is yours and that it is not plagiarized.
- 3) Should your video receive any public comments that are hateful or discriminatory in nature, we promise to do everything we can to block these individuals from our site, as we have no tolerance for hateful commentary. However, you acknowledge that speakbravely.com is not responsible for any negative reactions or outcomes, should they occur, from the public posting of your video. In turn, if you ever decide that you would prefer that we remove your video from our website, we agree to do so immediately upon your request (via email).
- 4) You understand that, while our site may generate monetary income upon its growth, we claim no ownership of the contents of your video. Your video will always be free for our viewers to access, and we will never sell your video for monetary gain, as we do not aspire to own or sell your creative property. In addition, we do not, in any way, own the exclusive rights to the publication of your video. You may continue to publish it anywhere you choose.
- 5) You allow us to add a 3-second introductory screen to your video which introduces our website and encourages viewers to subscribe. We will follow this with a 3-second screen displaying the title of your piece and your name. Otherwise we will make no alterations to your video without your permission.
- 6) If you are not 18 years of age or older, you understand that we will not publish your video until you and your parent/guardian have also completed and submitted the parental permission form, which can be found in the "Submission Options and Guidelines" section of our website.
